

The image features a repeating pattern of three horizontal rows of hexagonal shapes. The top row consists of large, semi-transparent white hexagons with black outlines, set against a dark blue background. The middle row contains smaller, solid white hexagons with black outlines, also set against a dark blue background. The bottom row is identical to the middle one, with smaller white hexagons on a dark blue background. The overall effect is a clean, modern, and minimalist geometric design.
